Student will be expected to participate in four learning sessions each day. The first and third sessions are focused on Core subjects. The second and fourth sessions are focused on integrated or elective studies.

Core Sessions: The first 30 minutes of each session will be delivered by a subject specific teacher through ELO online collaborator. In the second 30 minutes, students will have the opportunity to engage specifically with their class teacher via email. Attendance will recorded in these sessions as students enter the ELO online collaborator platform.

Elective Sessions: Students will have the opportunity to access learning materials through subject specific ELO pages and to engage specifically with their class teacher via email. Students who engage in multiple electives in a faculty area can utilise time associated with a key learning area that they do not participate. Example – If a student studies 2 technology subjects and no ARTs subjects then the student uses both technology and Arts time to complete their elective learning.
